OUR THANKS to all who support the ministries of our church through their regular and special gifts. Many participated in the Christmas Offering for the General Fund. As of Dec. 21 we are $25,000 short of budget. But, we praise God that despite financial hardships for many, we have met all obligations.

OFFERING ENVELOPES for 2010 are available on the Entry Table. The envelopes make it possible for us to issue an official year-end receipt for tax deduction purposes. We encourage our members and regular worshipers to use them. Please contact the church office if you would like a box.

MEN OF INTEGRITY (Jan-Feb issue) and CCC PRAYER GUIDES for the week are on the Welcome Center cart. Life Group members are asked to get their prayer guides from the cart. LG packets will resume in January.

OUR THANKS to all who ministered to us through last Sunday night's Christmas Musical: God Speaking and the wonderful Dessert Fellowship.

CONGRATULATIONS to Robert & Diana Duhaney on the December 8 birth of George Joshua (9.11bs—22").

HAPPY NEW YEAR

BE CHRIST'S DISCIPLE

"But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

Jesus (Matthew 6:33)

And he said to them all, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

Jesus (Luke 9:23)

True discipleship is obeying Jesus Christ and learning of Him and following Him and doing what He tells you to do, keeping His commandments and carrying out His will. That kind of person is a Christian—and no other kind is. ... A true disciple has not taken an impulsive leap in the dark. That person is one who has become a Christian after deep thought and proper consideration. ... A true disciple does not consider Christianity a part-time commitment. That person has become a Christian in all departments of his or her life.
